

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Eckington

Misses Kathryn and Julia McKee, of Hagerstown, Md., are visiting Miss Mabel Catharine Linton, of Eckington. Mrs. Dietrich and Miss Jones, entered a small company of friends at their home last Thursday evening. A musical program was enjoyed. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Macaron, Miss Lee, Mr. and Miss Sforzack, Mr. Hynson, Mr. Brown, Mr. Lownd, Mrs. Lownd, Mr. Charters, Mr. Garbett, Mr. Sapira, Miss McDonald, Miss Jones, and Mrs. Dietrich.

Bernard R. Green's Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard R. Green have gone to Cleveland to visit their son, Bernard L. Green. From there Mr. and Mrs. Green will go to Herricks, on Pennsylvania Bay, Maine.

In a game characterized by good pitching and snappy batting, the strong Bloomingdale club defeated the Vermonts last Monday evening, by a score of 10 to 4. Stewart, of the Vermonts, was hit at several times, but received good support throughout the contest. Three fast double plays and a pretty catch of a line drive by Lewis were the features.

Miss Lydia Loring, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Loring, has returned to her parents' home, on K street, from a visit to Pittsburgh, where she was extensively entertained.

The next meeting of the North Capital and Eckington Citizens' Association will not occur until the fourth Monday in September.

Death of Child.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, of 101 M street, northeast, lost their infant son, Angiel, by death, last Monday. The child was but two months old.

Miss Louise G. Sanford is still visiting friends at Oldham's, Va.

T. Albert Newman, of M street, is at Atlantic City, where he expects to stay for several weeks.

A batting rally in the last inning won the game for St. Patrick last Tuesday afternoon on the Radford diamond, when they won from the Trinity team, the score being 13 to 12. Both teams hit the ball hard. Although Trinity lost, they secured fourteen hits to St. Patrick's eleven. Zane, pitcher, had a fine game, securing thirteen strike-outs.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club met at the home of Mrs. Samuel W. Travers last Monday evening. The top score was made by Miss Claire Guillaume and John Tyler.

Crump-Wright.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Wright, when their eldest daughter, Maude Grace, became the bride of Charles Fletcher Crump, the Rev. W. J. Houck officiating. The bride's gown was of white lace net over silk, and she carried a bouquet of roses. The bride was given away by her father, and had as her attendants her two sisters, Jennie May and Fannie, who were joined alike in white with pink girdles and bouquets of bride roses. George W. Crump, the groom's brother, acted as best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated. Many relatives were present from Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Crump will be at home after July 3 at 413 M street.

Mrs. Charles Kaufman and Mrs. Fannie K. Levi are in Baltimore, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frank.

Leo T. Haden was the host at a birthday dance given last Saturday evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and at the conclusion of the program supper was served. Among those present were Misses Bates, Brown, MacDougall, Williams, Andrew, Wilson, and Strawn, and Messrs. Simmons, Harding, Daly, McCordell, Lesh, Williams, Burns, Getz, Jones, and Hayden.

Dr. Alexander Crawford has left town for Gloucester, Mass., where he intends to spend a week before going to Portsmouth, N. H., where he will remain the greater part of the summer.

Mrs. Chapman's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Fannie Chapman, the widow of the late George R. Chapman, took place from the Third Baptist Church last Wednesday at 2 o'clock p. m. Only friends and relatives attended. Mrs. S. C. Maer, of Columbus, Miss., is in the city on a short visit to Mrs. Protzman, of K street.

Mrs. Guy Hunt, of this city, accompanied by her little daughter Grace, has left this section for Somerset, Pa., where they will spend the summer months.

A number of sophomores of the Eastern High School held a picnic at Pierce's Mill last Wednesday. The organization of a junior club of '06, of which debating is to be a prominent feature, was discussed and decided upon. Members of the party were the Misses Helen Bane, Estelle Donn, Mary Engle, Myrtle King, Anita Morrison, Lillian Prentiss, Bessie Steine, Joseph Tomlin, and Messrs. Thompson, Tewksbury, Offenstien, Dumont, McFarland, Sanderson, Cressy, Brown, Eslin, and Handy. The party was chaperoned by mothers of three of the young ladies.

Mrs. Charles Wheaton Seaman, of Minneapolis, Minn., is in the city for a short visit, at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Collins, of this section.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The North Capital branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting last week. The attendance was unusually large and the exercises spirited and attractive. The meeting was opened by Mrs. S. H. Willey. Miss Baldwin followed, with a talk on character building. Recitations were given by Miss Dougherty and Miss Higdon. Miss Clara Moore contributed several songs, and Miss Florence Moore presided at the organ.

The Presbyterian Alliance of Washington, D. C., has purchased a piece of ground situated in West Eckington from Abraham R. Seven, John Nolan has purchased several lots in "Center Eckington" from Joseph Spiegle.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Cusick were the hosts at a reception held last Thursday evening in honor of the graduation of their daughter, Miss Irene C. Cusick. The latter was one of the four graduates this year at St. Patrick's academy.

Musical selections were contributed by Miss Pritchard and P. Hutchinson, Al Fennell, Jr., Charles Lynch, M. Connelly, W. Furbershaw, and T. Furbershaw. The guests included Misses E. Dessey, Marie Hines, Marguerite Smith, Marie Foysse, Maude McClure, Irene Burdine, Clara Maule Reichenbacher, Susie and Gertrude Jouveaux, Gertrude Burns, Blanche Price, Collette Daly, Josephine Kane, Nellie Kane, S. Pritchard, Louise Cusick, M. O'Leary, Mary Kane, Clara and Florence Cusick and Irene Cusick, and Charles Kramer, Oscar Harkness, T. McGrath, T. Furbershaw, Charles Lynch, Frank Hutchinson, E. Wise, A. Joyce, D. E. Connelly, A. S. Fennell, Jr., C. Kausler, E. Quinte, E. Purcell, V. Helms, Smith, M. Lepley, D. Kane, Purcell Walter, and Ralph Cusick.

Visiting Sister.

Mrs. J. W. Babson, of Boston, Mass., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary J. Babson, of this city, for the past two weeks. She expects to start home next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Connelly, of K street, left the city last Monday for their country home in Sullivan county, N. Y., intending to spend the summer there, returning in the fall on the completion of their new residence.

Last Thursday night a surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. William Wolf by Mr. and Mrs. Abe Kaminsky, in honor of their home coming from New York. The house was tastefully decorated with potted plants, palmettos, and a beautiful bouquet of American Beauty roses was given them by their grandchildren Leah and Meyer Kaminsky. Those present were relatives and close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf.

Surprise Party.

Miss Adah Worthington was pleasantly surprised by a number of friends at her home on V street Tuesday evening. Many original games were enjoyed. The first prizes for the drawing contest was awarded to Miss Bessie Fenton and Frank Tenneyson, and the booby prize to Miss Marion Hoover, and Oliver Birchhead. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, and the evening's pleasure ended with music and dancing. Those present were the Misses Adah Worthington, Marion Hoover, Edith Austin, Gertrude Johnson, Helen Ferguson, Bessie Austin, Florence E. E. Peterson, Bessie Hampton, Flora Coleman, Claude Thomas, Claude Thomas, Walter Birchhead, John McWhorter, Harold McDowell, Charles Birchhead, Hewson Martin, Harold Woodhead, Frank Schuckers, Frank Tenneyson, Carl Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fenton.

Girls' Club Entertained.

Miss Isabel Shelton entertained the members of a girls' club at luncheon last Tuesday at her home on Second street. The matrons were Mrs. George Shelton, Mrs. William H. McCauley, and Mrs. William W. Maxwell. Those present were Misses Grace Miller, Mary Keane, Dorothy Knapp, Kitty Juneman, Edna Hurst, Louise Grady, and Bettie Baines.

Washington College now has a deserted appearance, all of the girls, with few exceptions, having left for their homes to spend the summer vacation.

In the Marquette League last Wednesday the immaculates gave the St. Vincent boys a good drubbing on the Radford grounds at Second and R streets. The score was 12 to 7. The winners used their bats well, getting thirteen hits, Stener leading with four. Cronson, the Business High School pitcher, was on the rubber for the winners and held the St. Vincent boys down well, securing seven strikeouts and allowing but nine hits. The seven errors behind him were responsible for most of the runs. William Nathan Dockers, eleven years old, was running along in front of his home a large dog jumped at him and bit him on the hip. The wound, which is not considered serious, was treated at the Emergency Hospital.

Operation Necessary.

The condition of L. L. Nicholson, who has been for the past several weeks seriously ill with typhoid fever is somewhat improved. The fever has given the doctors in attendance a stubborn resistance owing to a complication which necessitated performing an operation.

The Bloomingdale Athletic Club went to Lanham, Md., last Wednesday and defeated the ball team of that town in a one-sided game. The score was 25 to 3. Heavy and consistent hitting by the Bloomingdales enabled them to carry off the game with ease. The Lanham pitcher for a total of nineteen hits. Both teams played glit-glit ball, but after the first inning the Washington boys had the Lanham team at their mercy.

Bloomingdale

The residents of this section were surprised to hear of the engagement of Miss Jane Sophia Blyssan to George Richmond Henney, of Philadelphia, last week. The wedding has been set for the first week in October, when the ceremony will take place at the home of Miss Blyssan's aunt in the Quaker City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Johnson, of First street, left Friday for New York with their two children, Lewis and Clara. They will visit friends in New York city until the middle of July, when they will sail for Liverpool, where Mr. Johnson has a brother. From England they will go to Paris after first visiting London and after a short stay at the French capital will visit Vienna, Berlin, and Rome, from thence returning to Washington some time in September.

Mrs. E. B. Miller, of S street, has gone to Atlantic City with her little daughter, Katherine, to stay two weeks.

The Hanlins, residing in V street, have secured a cottage at Colonial Beach for the summer. Mr. Hanlin went down with his family last Wednesday to aid in getting settled, but will return to the city Sunday evening. From Mrs. Raymond Hillyer Bowman, of Winchester county, Virginia, is the guest of her grandnephew, Thomas Henry Hillyer, and wife, Mrs. Bowman is a former resident of Bloomingdale, having gone to Winchester to live with her husband's parents just after his death in December.

Mrs. Lucy M. Brinker is visiting her mother at the latter's summer cottage at Arundel-on-the-Bay. She expects to remain four or five weeks.

On Way to Recovery.

The friends of Mr. Follmer will be glad to learn that he will soon be able to leave the hospital where he has been confined with appendicitis for a month or more. At the time Mr. Follmer was operated on he was in a very weak condition and his life was despaired of. Realizing the seriousness of his condition his sister, Mrs. B. B. Burwell, had him taken to the Providence Hospital and is greatly through her efforts that he recovered.

The condition of Mrs. Crouseman, who has had typhoid, is very much improved. She is thought by her doctor to be out of danger. Mrs. Crouseman is one of the leaders of society in this locality besides being actively engaged in charity work in the city and her friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Last week Miss Seltzman, who teaches piano and vocal lessons, and who has been suffering from gastritis, was the recipient of a letter from her mother, which was presented to her by her pupils in Bloomingdale.

On last Tuesday evening Mrs. R. D. Fulton presented her proud spouse with a twelve-pound baby boy. Mrs. Fulton's condition has been very critical ever since she suffered a fall at the corner of North Capitol and M streets, whereby she sprained her back. It was thought at the time that she would have to be taken to the hospital, but she objected so strenuously that the doctor in care of her was overruled. She is still in a weak condition, but is out of danger.

That President Roosevelt's race suicide theory is disproved and that the country is a safe place for a large number of friends gathered at the home of the young man's parents, 912 Eleventh street, Friday evening last week. An excellent musical program was rendered by Miss Jessie King, Miss Bernice Henwood, Miss Mary Cohen, John King, Irving King and Prof. Edward Green. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Miss Jessie King, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker, Miss Minnie Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Wightman, Miss Myrtle Frazier, Mrs. King, Miss Estelle Ash, Mrs. Ruppel and daughter, Miss Maud Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, Miss Mary M. Clarke, Miss Eva Sherry, E. W. Webb, Miss Rena Brown, L. Cohen, Miss Rena Sweeney, A. Poole, Miss Jennie Sweeney, John King, Miss Bernice Henwood, W. H. Ward, Russell Baker, Prof. Edwin Green, Charles Wise, James E. Baker and Marion Thompson.

Back From Boat Races.

John R. McCormick and his son Frank returned to their home, on V street, Friday evening. John McCormick went to Poughkeepsie to witness the boat races, and was accompanied by his son, who has just completed his junior year at the Buffalo University.

Miss Helen Elizabeth Trimmer, of Second street, has gone to teach mathematics and physics at a girls' summer school in Richmond, Va.

Miss Irene Chas. Kren, of R street, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Page Van Arden, at the latter's home, in Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. E. R. Frank has as her guests for the week Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Wrenn and their little daughter Florence, of Norfolk county, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Knolls, of North Capitol street, are at Ocean View, Md., where they will remain until the Fourth of July.

Miss Eva Rhinehart and her sister Edith will be among the guests of Miss Renolda Wilson, who is giving a house party for the last two weeks of July at Glen Allen, Va., where her father has a summer home.

Engineer J. Gagny, of engine company No. 12, is on leave.

The firm of Allard and Appleby, contractors, have secured the contract to build for E. R. Williams one two-story brick dwelling to be known as E. R. Williams, which will have his home here when the building is completed.

Last Monday the Bloomingdale Athletic Club, baseball team, added another scalp to its belt when it took the strong team, the Vermonts into camp to the tune of 10 to 4. Stewart, for the home team, was well backed up by his team more than made up for this fact.

Those in charge of the athletic department at the Episcopal and Methodist Church have on foot a plan to break into the Sunday School Baseball League next season. The plan is to have a team that church now has played great ball all the year and should, through merit, be allowed to join one of the leagues.

Takoma Park

The bowling alleys of the Takoma Club and Library have been closed for the summer months, and the bowling and jack-pin teams disbanded after a successful season.

Mr. and Mrs. James Regent, of Takoma, Md., have gone to Virginia Beach for the month of July, accompanied by their youngest daughter, Clara.

Miss Sadie Burroughs has returned from a visit to Baltimore, Md., where she has been the guest of Mrs. P. N. Kingsman.

Eugene Kinnear has returned to the park from his sophomore year at Cornell University for the vacation months. His will return to the city in the fall.

Mrs. Beaman, who has been confined to her bed for the past two weeks with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving rapidly. Her friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Arthur Walker was taken suddenly ill last Wednesday and had to be given medical attention. For a while he was thought to be suffering from acute indigestion, to which he is subject, but the doctor afterward pronounced him a victim of nervous exhaustion, caused from overwork.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson, of Toledo, Ohio, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace at their home in North Takoma. Mr. Watson will return to his business in Toledo next Monday, but his wife will remain at the park until after the Fourth of July.

Next Thursday Mrs. L. Trueman will leave for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Whetmore, of Rochester, N. Y. While in Rochester Mrs. Trueman will visit Niagara Falls and the Thousand Isles.

Earnest Baker, with his wife and two children, sailed last week from New York for Europe, where they will tour the continent. They expect to remain abroad several months.

Miss Floreshelm, of Baltimore, Md., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Isador Newman at their home on the Piney Branch road.

Mrs. Albert Jennings, who a few weeks ago went to Hot Springs for her health, has returned to her home in the park greatly improved. Mrs. Jennings has been suffering from a complication of ailments all last winter, but has now fully recovered her health.

Miss Florence Seitz, who has been spending some time in Florida, returned to her home in Maple avenue last Tuesday.

Southeast Washington

Charles J. Walker has just finished four two-story brick houses at the corner of Sixteenth and E streets southeast. Each has six rooms and bath. The fronts are red pressed and laid brick, trimmed with Indiana limestone. Burgess & Parsons were the builders.

While working a lawn mower at his home, 527 Fifth street, Friday morning, Harry B. Mead, fifteen years old, cut three fingers seriously on his left hand. He was taken to the Providence Hospital and later sent home after treatment had been given.

A permit has been issued to build a two-story brick apartment house at 147 Massachusetts avenue southeast, to cost $2,500. The architect will be B. P. Donohue. The owner is Mary F. Carroll.

Thomas McCabe has transferred the property, 240 Kentucky avenue, to Josephine A. Stein.

Sanford Edie has sold half of his interest in a large tract of 100 acres, located in the Potomac river, to Clarence B. Light.

L. R. Miller, of 614 Eleventh street, figured in an exciting accident one evening last week, while driving a horse and buggy across the railroad tracks at Third street and Virginia avenue.

James J. Miller, who was attempting to run away, overturned the vehicle, throwing Mr. Miller to the ground with considerable force. His leg was painfully bruised, and the shaft of the buggy was broken. The Fourth precinct station was notified of the accident and the injured man was removed to his home in the patrol wagon.

In honor of the twenty-first birthday of James A. Baker, a large number of friends gathered at the home of the young man's parents, 912 Eleventh street, Friday evening last week. An excellent musical program was rendered by Miss Jessie King, Miss Bernice Henwood, Miss Mary Cohen, John King, Irving King and Prof. Edward Green. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Miss Jessie King, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker, Miss Minnie Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Wightman, Miss Myrtle Frazier, Mrs. King, Miss Estelle Ash, Mrs. Ruppel and daughter, Miss Maud Dillard, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker, Miss Mary M. Clarke, Miss Eva Sherry, E. W. Webb, Miss Rena Brown, L. Cohen, Miss Rena Sweeney, A. Poole, Miss Jennie Sweeney, John King, Miss Bernice Henwood, W. H. Ward, Russell Baker, Prof. Edwin Green, Charles Wise, James E. Baker and Marion Thompson.

Lodge Eulogies Member.

At a recent meeting of Camp No. 6, Patriotic Order, Sons of America, held at 29 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, eulogistic remarks were made on the life and character of B. F. McFarland, past president of Camp No. 6, and district president northeast district, who died on June 19, after a long illness. Refreshments were served, and music was furnished by a select orchestra.

The Sixth left the Navy Yard Friday for Bridgeport, Conn., where she will remain all summer at the disposal of the President.

Tuesday Assistant Surgeon H. T. Nelson was detached from duty at the Naval Hospital and ordered to Indian Head.

H. H. W. Kelth has been appointed draftsman in the department of construction and repair.

H. F. has been appointed draftsman under the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, for duty at the Naval Hospital.

D. M. Daughton, first class molder, has been promoted to leading man in the department of ordnance from June 16.

A. Fischer, Jr., leading man, has been promoted to quartermaster in the department of ordnance, from June 16.

Second Lieut. H. S. Green, U. S. M. C., under treatment at the Naval Hospital, has been granted leave of absence for ten days from June 26.

Board Completes Duties.

The examining board to conduct the examination of candidates for the position of leading man, smokeless powder factory, Indian Head, Md., has completed its duties. No candidates qualified for appointment.

Chief Gunner C. H. Venable, U. S. N., retired, of the inspection board, has been granted thirty days' leave of absence from July 1.

D. Sylvan, under treatment at the Government Hospital for the Insane, is reported to have gained his normal mental condition, and will be examined by a naval medical surveyor.

W. F. Robinson, chief yeoman, was discharged from the Dolphin on June 17, his enlistment having expired.

E. H. Davis, private, U. S. M. C., has been transferred to the Dolphin.

T. F. Clarkson was discharged upon the expiration of his enlistment on the 19th.

J. W. Reed, fireman, first class, has been transferred to the Lancaster.

F. J. McDonald, hospital apprentice, reported absent without permission since May 29, has been declared a deserter.

R. Dean, a laborer in the yards and docks department, was accidentally injured last week and was sent home.

J. A. Brown, a machinist in the erecting shop, was taken sick while at work Thursday and was obliged to go home.

A. W. Thomas was admitted to the hospital on the 21st.

Dillon Sherry, hospital steward, recently returned from Pensacola, died at his home on Eighth street southeast, the 17th instant.

John B. Dalseh has transferred part of the original lot 2, square 225, on E street between Eleventh and Ninth streets southeast, to Luther L. Apple.

Fell From Apple Tree.

Lawrence Miller, thirteen years old, living at 915 I street, fell from an apple tree Wednesday morning on the Bowen road and injured both his arms. The Anacostia patrol wagon was summoned and the injured boy was removed to his home.

Monday at Trinity M. E. Church, Miss Louisa Beaman, married Mr. Frank E. Young, and Miss Alice Y. Sherer married Mr. Lindenberg Reaner. The first bride and the second bridegroom are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reaney, of Washington. The Rev. J. C. Nicholson officiated at both ceremonies. The bridesmaids were Miss Golden Reaney, sister of the first mentioned bride, and Miss Alice Sherer, sister of the other bride. Miss Alva Reaney was maid-of-honor for both, and each bridegroom acted as best man for the other. Elmo Sprongman was groomsmen. After congratulations and their cottage at Colonial Beach, where they will spend part of the summer. Mr. Dyon, who keeps the popular oyster house at Eighth and G streets, is visiting in the country.

Corporal G. H. Miller, of the Marine Corps, has returned from a two weeks' visit in New York State.

William Buckingham, of 213 Eighth street, entertained a few of his friends at his home Wednesday evening.

Paul Hallam, who was seriously ill at the hospital for several months, was able to walk out last Wednesday for the first time in about a week.

Mrs. H. Arth, accompanied by her sons, Claude and Archibald, her daughter Celestina, and her granddaughter Evelyn, left Sunday to spend the summer on Twin Oak farm, in Anne Arundel county, Md.

William Buckingham and Joseph A. Arth will leave Sunday to join M. Donohue's orchestra, at Capron Springs, Va.

W. F. Kerngood, the president of Local 161, A. F. of M., and last season's leader of Chase's orchestra, is spending his vacation at St. James, L. I. Before Mr. Kerngood's departure the organization of which he is president, presented him with a handsome gold medal, inscribed with the local's emblem.

Mrs. Charles Norsworthy and her little son, Richard Norsworthy, who were visiting Mrs. E. A. Oldham, in the Loudoun, have returned to their home in Norfolk, Va.

Nice Lawn Party.

A lawn party that was well patronized was given at 645 Pennsylvania Wednesday night. The yard was beautifully illuminated by many Japanese lanterns, and music was furnished by an orchestra.

Sylvan Greenapple, of 330 Sixth street, has returned home for vacation from school in Philadelphia.

F. E. Carter, who will be the leader of Chase's orchestra during the coming season, has returned home from a stay at Atlantic City, where he extended trip through New York State.

Mrs. Huth, of 615 Pennsylvania avenue, accompanied by her daughter, who, on account of ill health, has been advised by her physician to seek a change, will leave the city for Newport News this week.

A. Burgess will shortly open up the store, 229 Seventh street southeast, and engage in the business of house painting and graining.

The wife of Mr. De Marco, musician in the Marine Band, who has been seriously ill for some time, was reported Thursday to be improving.

A beautiful lawn party was given on Mr. Riley's lawn, Second street southeast, Wednesday evening. Lanterns of various colors were in abundance, and an immense American flag covered the front. Refreshments were served, and music was furnished by a select orchestra.

The Sixth left the Navy Yard Friday for Bridgeport, Conn., where she will remain all summer at the disposal of the President.

Tuesday Assistant Surgeon H. T. Nelson was detached from duty at the Naval Hospital and ordered to Indian Head.

H. H. W. Kelth has been appointed draftsman in the department of construction and repair.

H. F. has been appointed draftsman under the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, for duty at the Naval Hospital.

D. M. Daughton, first class molder, has been promoted to leading man in the department of ordnance from June 16.

A. Fischer, Jr., leading man, has been promoted to quartermaster in the department of ordnance, from June 16.

Second Lieut. H. S. Green, U. S. M. C., under treatment at the Naval Hospital, has been granted leave of absence for ten days from June 26.

The examining board to conduct the examination of candidates for the position of leading man, smokeless powder factory, Indian Head, Md., has completed its duties. No candidates qualified for appointment.

Chief Gunner C. H. Venable, U. S. N., retired, of the inspection board, has been granted thirty days' leave of absence from July 1.

D. Sylvan, under treatment at the Government Hospital for the Insane, is reported to have gained his normal mental condition, and will be examined by a naval medical surveyor.

W. F. Robinson, chief yeoman, was discharged from the Dolphin on June 17, his enlistment having expired.

E. H. Davis, private, U. S. M. C., has been transferred to the Dolphin.

T. F. Clarkson was discharged upon the expiration of his enlistment on the 19th.

J. W. Reed, fireman, first class, has been transferred to the Lancaster.

F. J. McDonald, hospital apprentice, reported absent without permission since May 29, has been declared a deserter.

Brightwood

Owing to the number of residents of the park having gone on summer outings, social games have been extremely dull for the past week. The one event to break the monotony was the reception given by Mrs. J. M. Fitzpatrick in honor of her daughter, Evelyn Mary Fitzpatrick, who last week graduated from the Woman's College of Baltimore. The early part of the evening was spent in games, Mrs. George winning the special prize, a silk umbrella, and Miss Grace Zebby winning the first prize for the young ladies, a handsome hand-painted vase. After the winners of the games were announced a delightful buffet supper was served in the dining room. Those present were James Hartley, Ira F. George, E. H. Thomas, Jr., Frederick C. Wallace, Clarence Simpson, Miss Evelyn M. Fitzpatrick, Miss Grace Fitzpatrick, Miss Effie Thomas, Miss Irene Ray Golden, and Miss Jeanette Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Farmer have gone to Chattanooga, Tenn., where they are visiting Mrs. Freeman S. McQuinn, the mother of Mrs. Farmer.

Miss Matilda Lee is visiting friends in New York city.

For the past week Mrs. R. P. Davis, of Umattila street, has had as